SERIALIZED COMBINATION LOCK

Brenthaven®
Carrying Technology Forward

THE SERIALIZED COMBINATION LOCK program is ideal for oganizations who want the convenience of keyless security and the ability to retrive combinations for lockout sutations.

- Authorized administrators have secure online access to retrieve serial numbers and corresponding combiations.
- No data is stored on the server. Serial codes are decrypted in real time using a hashing algorithm similar to ones used by the US Military.
- Each lock comes with preset combiation which cannot be changed and is engraved with a unique serial number.
- Serial number ownership is assigned to customer when they are shipped from Brenthaven, no administration needed by customer.
- The flexibility of a Master Keyed solution with the convenience of keyless/combiaton solution.
- Minimum order of 25 units.
